Elephant Parade Art Exhibition

August 23rd - November 16th

The Elephant Parade Art Exhibition opening kick-off ceremonies will begin the weekend of August 23 at Doheny State Beach. This Art Exhibition coming to the Dana Point Community will be the first United States location to present this international cultural arts event in support of the endangered Asian elephant.

The elephants will be primarily placed throughout the Harbor, and in other locations around the City of Dana Point for ten weeks, including local beaches, public parks, and resort properties.
